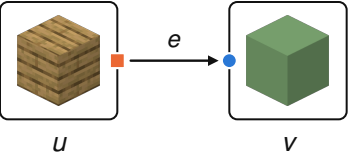
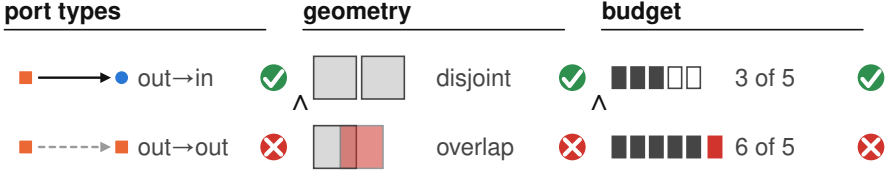
An action is one typed edge (u, v, e). Three masks decide whether it can be proposed.





Masked actions have probability zero: invalid graphs are unreachable, so only semantics is left to learn.